Radium Star Wins the Colts' End of the Matro Stakes for R. T. Wilson, Jr .- High Private Creates New Track Record.

New York, September 28.—Notwithstanding the counter attraction of the Hudson-Fulton historical parade, the Westenester Racing Association's autumn meeting of twelve days was today ushered in successfully at Belmont Park. As usual, members of the society and hunting set were conspicuous. Rain, which fell during the preceding night, produced slushy going, but marvelously fast time was nevertheless made. In fact, a new track record of 2:04k for a mile and a quarter was established by High Private, one of the winners. The star racing attraction was the first half of the Matron Stakes, having a gross value of $10.070, for two-year-old colts and geldings. This important invenile fixture, over the six furlongs straightaway, was cantured by Raddon Star, with his more highly considered to the two leaders, finished third five lengths away, after having loomed up a threatening factor at the beginning of the final sixteenth. The highly inclined, but it was Candiberry, the Futurity runner-up, that the public was supporting. Creey, the stable lockey, had been superseded by Grand on the preferred one of the pair and felt aggrieved over it. Creeyy rose to the occasion and won the biggest vace of his career on the second-best horse. There was less of bumping and swerring in the rand importance in the history and seemed unable to stride freely in the going at the finish, although he was closing stoutly. Because of the muddy track couldings as the falled in the history of the Matron between the history of the Matron between the second the search of the star production of the pair and felt aggrieved over in the history of the muddy track coulding from the second at the hints, although he was closing stoutly. Because of the muddy track couldings from the second at the hints, although he was closing stoutly. Because of the muddy track coulding the difference of the star of the second the sec diffions the attractive card was considerably generated the remaining races.

Run at Morris Park prior to 1905.

R. T. Wilson, Jr., scored another popular success in the fifth race with Brushbroom, a grand-looking bris and the first-class three-year-old prospect after his casy victory. Form was lwell maintained, with three favorites and three second choices monopolizing the honors.

Thirty-five officers from visfting Italian warships were guests of the Jockey Club during the afternoon.

The sheriff of Nassau County and twenty deputies were guests of the Jockey Chib during the aftermoon.

The sheriff of Nassau County and twenty deputies were on hand to see that the anti-betting law was not violated.

T. E. Mannix shipped his string last night to Richmond, Va. He will race at a couple of the southern meetings and be on hand for the beginning at Baltimore October 23. Mannix has a useful string of horses now, including German Silver, Democrat and General MacGregor, all of which he recently claimed out of selling races.

Woods and William Garch will ship their horses to Baltimore today. Theodore Coles will take Juggler to Belmont Park and the balance of the Garth shipment.

TRAINERS MAKE FRIENDLY BET.

Louisville, Ky., September 28.—John Marklein, the Cincinnati trainer, and Charles Hughes, whose horses are now quartered here, indulged in a joshing match over the two-year-olds, Prince Imperial and Barleythorpe, which were respectively sold out of their stables to eastern turfmen at fancy prices. Marklein, in partnership with his father, J. J. Marklein, bred Prince Imperial, they owning his dam. Dixoletta, a mare that seems destined to be Marklein, in partnership with his father, J. J. Marklein, bred Prince Imperial, they owning his dam. Dixoletta, a mare that seems destined to become a famous stud matroe. Her first three foals trained are the good winners, Beau Brummel, W. A. Leach and Prince Imperial, and they now own a yearling brother to the first-named pair, a handsome brown colt by Star Shoot. Dixoletta was mated this year with Dick Welles and her produce in 190 will be strongly inbred, as the sire of the will be strongly inbred, as the sire of the will be strongly inbred, as the sire of the John Short will be strongly inbred, as the sire of the John Short will be strongly inbred, as the sire of the famous hay so tribe, she being a daughter of Sir Dixon and out of Brambaletta, by Bonnie Scotland. Brambaletta was a sister to Bramble, the sire of Clifford-Prince of Melbourne and Ben Brush. Marklein and Hughes' argument as to the relative merits of Prince Imperial and Barleythorpe hinges on the performances of the two high-priced youngsters next season as three-year-olds, and when one beats the other at that age, either Hughes or Marklein will be walking around with a new suit of clothes on as a result of yesterday's friendly bet.

John Marklein could have see with Prince Imperial, and the surface of "I guess one reason I am struck on him," says Marklein, "he never disappoints me in his work much. If he does certain things in the morning I know just about what he will do in the afternoon. He is not a bit fickle, just true all the inner. That's the reason I mated Dixoletta back to Star Shoot this year instead of sending her to Orlando, Prince Imperial's sire."

ACCUSED MEN PLEAD NOT GUILTY.

New York, September 28.—The nineteen, alleged bookmakers, who were recently indicted by the Kings County grand jury, charged with violating the antibetting laws at the Shepshead Bay race track, were arraigney. They entered bleas of not guilty mad were released in $1,000 ball each for trial on October 18. They were represented by John B. Stanchield, who asked that the date of trial best as far off as possible that he might be afforded an opportunity to withdraw the pleas or interpose demurrers as he saw fit.

Four of Adam Beck's horses—Photographer, Moor Shot, Covertshot and Kempeuffeldt—were destroyed by fire last night while being shipped from Wood-bine to their owner's farm at London. The fire occurred a short distance outside of Toronto and is thought to have been caused by the knocking down of a Lontern which was hung to the roof of the ear. The latter will be sent to Lexiagton, where there will join the older horses, Ornusa and Caltha, that Goldblat has had turned out there all summer.

BAYARDO'S OWNER THE ENGLISH LEADER.

Mr. Fairie Has Displaced King Edward-Statistic and News of the Turf Beyond Seas.

London, Eng., September 18.—The failure of the king's colt. Minorn, in the St. Leger makes good the ester of the best critics that he is no good the series of the best critics that he is no good the part of Jones won the Derby for Minorn, and it is a question whether he will ever win another long-distance race when the company is really good. It is quite possible, however, that he will be a champion miler. Not even Bayardo will be likely to beat him over that distance.

to beat him over that distance.

The owner of Bayardo, the English champion, Mr. Fairie, is one of the luckiest of mortals. It is a characteristic of Mr. Fairie that no matter when or where you meet him he nearly always has a cigar between his lips. And the puzzling thing is that it is invariably a newly-lit cigar. How he manages it passes understanding.

He has been one of Fortune's darlings, Many years ago he was mining in West Australia when he became possessed of the Broken Hill silver mine in what has been described as very lucky style. He has derived an immense fortune from that Eldorado of riches, and since his return to England he has been a consistent supporter of the turf. His luck has not described him in this connection, as he has had his full share of racing successes. Mr. Fairle this real name is Arthur Cox) has the pleasure of having bred Bayardo himself, the dam of that cott being Galicia, and it will be a satisfaction the leest of his age in 1808 the was undoubtedly the leest of his age in 1808 the present year vindicated his superiority after having apparently gone to pleces in the spring.

The Paris autumn meeting commenced last Sunday, when the mile and a half Cumium, or French Cesarewitch, worth 86,610 brought out eighteen competitors, and was handly when by Mr. Trairieux's well-fancier Margarite, a bay four-steared daughter of Bouloir and Marcineness, and was handly consistent of Bouloir and Marcineness, and was been a length and a half in front of Rose de Plandre, three-year-old, 197 pounds. The important mile and seven furlongs Prix Royal Oak attracted half a dozen three-year-old colts, each of which carried 128 pounds, among them being Verdum. With the race generally considered a certainty for the latter, the Grand Prix de Paris winner started at 2 to 1 on, but after leading until nearing the distance he collapsed, leaving Aveu to win by half a leaght from Negofol. The winner bred by his owner, Mr. A. Aumforit is a good looking bay colt by Simonian (son of St. Simon and Garonne) out of Alliance by Saxifrage from Didline by that very good, horse Boiard out of Bijou, a daughter of Trumpeter and the Cake winner, Regalia.

ACCIDENT AT LOUISVILLE

JOCKEY R. WILLIAMS SUFFERS FRACTURE OF SKULL WHEN HIS MOUNT FALLS.

Hospital Authorities Hold Out Scant Hope of Boy's Recovery-Decreased Patronage Follows Programming of Poor Card.

Louisville, Ky.. September 2S.—An accident which was attended with fatal results came shortly after the start of the third race at churchill Downs this afternoon, when Bail Hazard, on which R. Williams had the mount, fell. The rider was picked up with a fractured skull and was rushed to a nearby hospital to be a start of the third race at the contract to Henderson & Hoganian as a under contract to Henderson & Hoganian as a contract the souly sike teen years old. In some quarters there was a disposition to fix the blame for the accident on the unwieldy field that contested the race. There was some crowding, which may have caused the horse to stumble and eventually fall. But the mishap was probably brought about by an attempt to lunge through a gap in the wall of horses.

Quantity displaced quality this afternoon and, as a result of the offering, the Churchill Downs management had a poor gate. Speculation was light, as the big fields of cheap racers held out small inducement for investment. The sport was only ordinary and enthusiasm was lacking. The best race of the afternoon was the fourth. In which Martine H. duplicated her clever victory of the opening day. Jos. B., Covington, Ky. The bet on Arasee was a draw. A bet does not follow a horse from one race to another except by mutual consent.

H. G. K., Chicago. It is common sense to infer the maker of the parlay meant it to start with Prince Imperial in the fourth race, but if he failed to say so it is his own fault that a draw is the best he is entitled to.

Fred M., Chicago, It is perfectly fair to all concerned. Bookmakers availed themselves of the track conditions, not paying on Pimpante place, and should have an objection to paying the Roseboro place bets in lieu thereof.
